

Incatext Ltd Environmental Policy

The Statement

'Incatext Ltd utilises its own environmental policy to manage the environmental impact of its business activities and fully supports the goal of creating a sustainable environment'

The Policy

The Incatext Ltd environmental policy is designed around stringent focus points and commitments, with the consideration that Incatext Ltd operations may have the potential to adversely impact the environment. By incorporating environmental procedures into its working practices, Incatext Ltd can achieve its objective's set out in the companies' environmental statement.

The Focus Points and Commitments

- Regularly review its environmental strategy to comply fully with environmental legislation and that affects Incatext Ltd business activities
- Reduce the environmental impact of all Incatext Ltd business activities by implementing specific procedures.
- Strive to reduce waste production and energy consumption at source
- Continuously review its operations to ensure that all implemented systems are maintained.
- Continually re-evaluate and control environmental risks associated with our industry
- Create awareness within employees of the companies' environmental policy and provide suitable training to encourage responsible participation
- Consider the energy sources and waste production when in the process of selecting materials and new processes
- Accepting its responsibility and duty of care when waste is produced and will dispose of it in a manner that does not adversely affect environment.
- Allowing the environmental policy to be viewed upon request